

Bellringers Question Time

Saturday 10th April 2021

19:30 BST

As part of this year's virtual Essex Ringing Course our usual Bellringers Question Time will be held via Zoom webinar. This has enabled us to look further afield for panellists and we are now pleased to invite you to register for the event.

Meet the Panel

Will Bosworth - Will has been Editor of The Ringing World since November 2019. He learnt to ring in Dorset as a child, did too much during his time as a music student in Birmingham, and rang with the band at Great St Mary's in Cambridge when he was there as a doctoral student. He now lives in Peterborough, where he sings in the Cathedral Choir and talks to his cat.

Mark Davies - Mark B Davies is a ringer and composer based in Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, who also marauds on social media under the pseudonym "EmBee Dee". He's most famous for Mythical Beasts 23-spliced and Methodokus, but when not composing peals or inventing puzzles enjoys swimming, writing poetry, and eating strong cheese.

Annie Hall - Annie learned to ring in Warwick sharing a band at the 8 bells at St Nicholas and the 10 at St Mary's. Annie is General secretary of the Coventry DG and a Central Council rep. Annie learnt to ring in Leicester and spent time ringing when she lived in Dorset, Kent and Staffordshire. A member of ART since its formation her greatest enjoyment in ringing is with the Coventry Spires Youth team.

Dylan Thomas - Dylan is 17 years old from Wellington, NZ. He started ringing in January 2019. In 2020 Dylan won the Association of Ringing Teachers' Learning the Ropes Achievement Award focuses primarily on ringing achievement – what had been achieved over what time scale – taking into account the support available
